

THE DOCTOR

N ELF IN WHITE CLOTHES KNEELS IN FRONT OF her fallen comrade, feeding them an experimental potion of healing she made herself. All the while a tiefling in Similar Clothing fends off two Ghouls, using a Sterile dagger with flawless precision.

Two humans in White clothing and Dark, Beaked Masks stand back to back. While one throws a vial to cloud their enemy's senses, the other throws a vial towards the bandits, lighting a match and throwing it too, to create an Inferno.

A plague-masked Individual clothed in dark leather uses his downtime to manufacture glass vials for tomorrow's concoctions, his tireless senses remaining sharp enough to notice approaching ambush.

All of these heroes are Doctors, a frontline support class. Instead of relying on magic like paladins or bards, they weaponize science — brewing their own custom concoctions to heal allies, harm enemies, and masterfully control the battlefield.

TIRELESS LIFESAVERS

In a world dominated by spellusers, the Doctor fights death and pain using natural ingredients and their own medical skill. To do so, they need to have a deep understanding of biology of all races. Doctors are also generally good at alchemy. they brew their own gases to use during battles, to inflict effects and hurt enemies. They generally fight amidst the chaos, using daggers precisely. During long rests of their companions, they are awake. They make their glass bottles to fill for the next day, while having the chance to notice a possible ambush.

STUDENTS OF DEATH AND DISEASE

Not every person who can stop a bleeding, disinfect a wound or cure a sickness is a Doctor. Those people know how to survive most things, but a Doctor knows how to counteract death itself.

A Doctor may become an adventurer to find the cure for a specific disease that has been haunting them, or to learn how to cure every kind of wound, sickness, and death. Others simply choose this path to support their companions in the heat of battle.

CREATING A DOCTOR

As you build your Doctor, think about how you got your knowledge: where or from whom did you learn to heal, brew and understand biology? How did you come to brew your first health potion? Do you heal to understand, or to help? Why did you start to learn healing? A family death, a plague that killed your friends, or simple curiosity could all have been factors.

You might have learned to heal from a great mentor, your parents or maybe even a shady Doctor in an alley. Maybe you learned everything in a clinic, having helped many adventurers. Perhaps you simply taught yourself by experimenting with plants. Did you start your journey because farm life was not enough? Is it the family business? How did you learn to blow glass to make your vials? Did you learn from another Doctor, or maybe even from a shopkeeper? No matter how you got them, your knowledge and flasks are by your side and help you fight death.

QUICK BUILD

You can make a Doctor quickly by following these suggestions. First, make Wisdom your highest Ability Score. Your next-highest score should be Constitution or Dexterity, to help you keep standing while helping others. Second, choose the Guild Artisan background and the guild business Alchemists and apothecaries or Glassblowers and glaziers.

INSOMNIA

Beginning at 1st level, you no longer require sleep. To gain the benefits of a long rest, you can spend 8 hours performing light activity, such as brewing concoctions. For every 2 hours spent brewing during a rest, you produce 1 empty Glass Vial. You can use your downtime to fill these vials with concoctions you know, up to your maximum preparation limit. While brewing, you can still notice approaching threats, but all perception Checks are at a Disadvantage. you can carry a maximum of 2x your Level of empty vials at a time.

MEDICINAL KNOWLEDGE

Beginning at 1st Level, you have Advantage on all Medicine Rolls. You can use an Action to Heal yourself or an Ally by 1d6 + Wis HP. You can do this once per 8 hours brewing time per Target. You can also use this to fill a Glass Vial before a fight, creating Experimental Healing Potions, healing 1d6 to whoever drinks it. If that Person were to drink a second one before having at least a 4 hour rest, make a constitution saving throw. for 10 and up it heals 1d6, 9 and under they overdose and it damages by 1d6.

SYRINGE

Beginning at 1st level, you have a custom syringe gun. It is a simple ranged weapon with the finesse property and a range of 30/60 feet. It does not require ammo. You may use Wisdom instead of Dexterity to shoot it.

When you hit a target with it, choose one of the following options. The attack deals 1d8 + Wis damage of that type:

- Cryogenic Agent (Cold)
- Chemical Reactant (Fire)
- Corrosive Acid (Acid)
- Bio-Electric Gel (Lightning)
- Neurotoxin (Poison)
- Necrotizing Agent (Necrotic)

This damage increases to 2d8 at 5th level, 3d8 at 11th level, and 4d8 at 17th level.

BREWING

Beginning at 2nd Level you can choose a Concoction to learn. At most Levels from this point on, you learn a new Concoction. Choose one from the Concoction List, that fits the Category (Standard, Special, Dangerous). You can now fill your Glas Vials with this Concoction. You can have a maximum number of active Concoctions prepared at one time equal to your Doctor Level + Wisdom Modifier. Any prepared concoction beyond your maximum limit loses its potency and becomes inert, though the glass vial remains intact and can be reused. Drinking Potions or throwing Gas Vials costs One Action.

MEDICAL FIELD

At 3rd level, you choose a field you Specialize in: Medic, Plague Doctor, or a third field of your choice, all detailed at the end of the Class Description. Your field choice grants you features at 3rd level and then again at 7th, 10th, and 14th level.

ABILITY SCORE IMPROVEMENT

When you reach 4th level, and again at 8th and 15th level, you can increase one ability score of your choice by 2, or you can increase two ability scores of your choice by 1. As normal, you can't increase an ability score above 20 using this feature. Optionally, you can choose to take a Feat instead of this increase.

SURGICAL PRECISION

Beginning at 5th level, your weapon attacks score a critical hit on a roll of 19 or 20. at 11th level, when you use your Action to throw a Gas Vial or feed a Potion to an ally, you can make one weapon attack with a dagger or sickle as a Bonus Action.

IMMUNOLOGY

Beginning at 6th level, you gain immunity to poison.

EFFICIENT BREWING

Beginning at 9th level, you gain a Glass vial every 1.5 Hours of Brewing time. at 13th Level you gain a Glass vial every Hour, and at 18th level you gain a Glass vial every half hour.

EVASION

Beginning at 11th level, When you are subjected to an effect that allows you to make a Dexterity saving throw to take only half damage, you instead take no damage if you succeed, and only half damage if you fail.

IMPROVED HEALING

Beginning at 12th level, your Healing now does 2d6 + Proficiency Bonus + Wisdom Modifier. Your Potions now Heal 2d6 + Proficiency Bonus HP. Overdosing Still Applies and scales.

CRITICAL PRECISION

Beginning at 16th level, when you score a critical hit with a weapon attack, you can choose one of the following effects to inflict on the target:

Sever Tendon: The target's movement speed is halved until the end of its next turn.

Strike Eyes: The target must succeed on a Constitution saving throw (DC = 8 + Proficiency Bonus + Wisdom modifier) or be blinded until the end of its next turn.

Arterial Cut: The target takes an extra 2d6 damage at the start of its next turn.

PERFECTED MEDICINE

Beginning at 19th Level your Healing now does 4d6 + Proficiency Bonus + Wisdom Modifier. Your Potions now Heal 4d6 + Proficiency Bonus HP. Since you finally perfected your medicine, overdosing does not apply anymore.

REVIVAL

At 20th Level, Once per 8 hours of brewing time, can return a dead creature (died within the last 10 minutes) to life with 1 HP.

MEDICAL FIELDS

At 3rd level, a Doctor chooses a field of specialization. The following options are available to you: Medic, Plague Doctor, and Witch.

MEDIC

Medics focus entirely on remaining on the battlefield and fending off death itself through Healing and Buffing

EMERGENCY PROTOCOL

Starting at 3rd Level, you can cheat death. once per target per long rest, When an ally 30 feet from you falls to 0 HP, you can use your Reaction to rush up to 30 feet directly toward them. This movement does not provoke opportunity attacks. roll a d20. If you have 10 or more, you revive them with 1d4 HP. Else, they need to do their Saving throws as normal.

QUICK HEAL

Beginning at 3rd Level, you can use a Bonus action to heal your allies using the Medicinal Knowledge Healing.

CLINICAL GUIDANCE

Beginning at 7th Level, When you or another creature you can see within 30 feet makes an ability check or a saving throw, you can use your reaction to add your Wisdom modifier to the roll. you can do this as often as your Wisdom modifier per long rest.

ADRENALINE RUSH

Beginning at 10th level, you can use a Bonus Action to inject a pure dose of adrenaline into an ally. Until the end of their next turn, their movement speed increases by 10 feet, and they gain a +2 bonus to their AC. Overdosing Applies here (1d20, DC10, if failed -1d10 HP). you can inject Adrenaline x times per long rest, where x is your Level halved (rounded up)

MEDICAL WONDER

Beginning at 14th level, your battlefield medicine is perfected. Your features receive the following upgrades:

- When an ally has Adrenaline, they can use their Bonus Action to make one melee or ranged weapon attack, or take the Dash, Disengage, or Use an Object action. All Adrenaline gotten by Medical Wonder first needs the target to make a DC 10 Constitution check. Overdosing does not Apply.
- Your Emergency Protocol now revives allies with 3d4 HP, and the revived ally gains the benefits of Adrenaline Rush.
- When using Quick Heal, healed allies now gain the benefits of Adrenaline Rush.
- When using Clinical Guidance the creature making that Check now gains the benefits of Adrenaline Rush.

PLAGUE DOCTOR

Plague Doctors Focus entirely on using their Concoctions to Dominate the Battlefield more.

GAS TRIFECTA

Beginning at 3rd Level, your gases deal an extra 1d6 damage, last 1 round longer, and their square coverage increases by an additional 5 feet every round.

Additionally, the area inside your gas clouds is difficult terrain for hostile creatures who do not have a plague mask.

IMMUNOLOGIST

Beginning at 7th Level, you are immune to poison and acid damage. You and your allies are immune to your own gases.

Additionally, when a hostile creature leaves one of your gas clouds, they take half of the gas's damage at the start of their next turn.

ALCHEMIST EXTRAORDINAIRE

Beginning at 10th Level, You can now mix two Gases together in a single vial. You choose one gas to deal its damage (if applicable), and apply the secondary effects of both gases.

PLAGUE MASTER

Beginning at 14th level, your gases become even Stronger. they now do an additional 2d6, Persist two rounds longer, and spread faster by an additional 10 feet every round.

WITCH

Witches use their own bodies as biological catalysts. Rather than just throwing gases, they drink their own toxic mixtures to emit powerful, combat-altering auras, allowing them to fight directly on the frontline.

INGEST GAS

Starting at 3rd Level, you can drink a Gas Concoction you have prepared instead of throwing it. You do not suffer its negative effects. Instead, the gas leaks from your body, creating a 10-foot-squares aura centered on you. The aura lasts for the gas's normal duration, or until you are knocked unconscious. Any creature that enters this aura for the first time on a turn or starts its turn there must make the gas's normal saving throw. You can only have one active Gas Aura at a time.

SURGICAL COMBAT

Also at 3rd Level, you gain proficiency with medium armor and martial weapons with the finesse property. Additionally, while you have an active Gas Aura, you can use your Wisdom modifier instead of Strength or Dexterity for the attack and damage rolls of melee attacks you make with daggers, sickles, or finesse weapons.

TOXIC BLOOD

Beginning at 7th Level, whenever a creature within 5 feet of you hits you with a melee attack, they take acid or poison damage (your choice) equal to your Wisdom modifier.

POTIONEER

Beginning at 10th Level, when you drink a Potion Concoction, you can choose to gain one of the following benefits for the potion's duration:

- Thick Skin: You gain temporary hit points equal to twice your Doctor level.
- Acidic Strikes: Your melee weapon attacks deal an extra 1d6 acid damage.
- Pain Killer: You gain resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage from non-magical attacks.

WITCH MONARCH

Beginning at 14th Level, your mutations are complete.

- The Square count of your Ingest Gas aura increases to 20 feet.
- While you have an active Gas Aura, you have resistance to all physical or non-magical attacks.
- When you use your Surgical Precision feature to make a bonus action melee attack, you can apply the effects of your active Gas Aura directly to the target on a hit, forcing them to make the saving throw with disadvantage.

HERETIC FIELD

Doctors of the Heretic Field use forbidden magic to control life, death, and protective barriers, crossing a line other doctors refuse to touch.

MAGICAL ALCHEMY

Starting at 3rd Level, you learn to cast spells. Wisdom is your spellcasting ability, and you can use your brewing tools as a spellcasting focus.

- Spell Selection: You learn spells from the Necromancy and Abjuration schools of magic.

INFUSE VIAL

Also at 3rd Level, when you prepare your concoctions during a rest, you can spend a spell slot to put a spell you know into a Glass Vial.

- Infused Potion: If the spell targets yourself or has a range of touch, it becomes a potion. The spell triggers when a creature drinks it.
- Infused Gas: If the spell targets an area or an enemy, it becomes a gas. The spell triggers when the vial is thrown. Anything Not fitting into either category can Not become an infused vial.

PRICE OF HERESY

Beginning at 7th Level, when you cast a spell of 1st level or higher, you can cast it at one level higher than the slot you used. If you do, you take 2d10 force damage. This damage cannot be reduced in any way.

LIFE DRAIN

Beginning at 10th Level, when you deal damage to a creature with a Necromancy spell or an Infused Gas, you regain HP equal to half the damage dealt.

ARCANE SURGERY

Beginning at 14th Level, when you cast an Abjuration or Necromancy spell, you or one ally within 30 feet of you gains temporary HP equal to your Doctor level + your Wisdom modifier.

ANATOMIST FIELD

Doctors of the Anatomist Field focus entirely on their own survival, treating enemies as test subjects and hoarding medicine for themselves.

ANATOMICAL STUDY

Starting at 3rd Level, you can use a Bonus Action to study a creature you can see within 60 feet. For 1 minute, your weapon attacks against that creature deal an extra 1d6 damage. You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier per long rest.

FLESH HARVEST

Starting at 3rd Level, when a hostile creature dies within 30 feet of you, you can use your reaction to regain HP equal to your Doctor level + your Wisdom modifier.

Alternatively, when an ally within 30 feet of you is reduced to 0 HP, you can use your reaction to gain temporary HP equal to twice your Doctor level instead.

SELF-PRESERVATION

Beginning at 7th Level, when you drink a potion or heal yourself with Medicinal Knowledge, you gain temporary HP equal to your Wisdom modifier + your proficiency bonus. The duration of any potion you drink is also doubled.

Additionally, if a Creature forces you to make a Wisdom or Constitution saving throw, you can use your reaction to refuse to instantly succeed. If you do, you gain advantage on your next attack roll or saving throw before the end of your next turn.

EXTRACTION

Beginning at 10th Level, when you hit your Clinical Study target, you can force them to make a Constitution saving throw. On a failure, they take 3d6 necrotic damage and you cure yourself of one condition (poisoned, blinded, or deafened). You can do this once per short rest.

ULTIMATE PRESERVATION

Beginning at 14th Level, when you are reduced to 0 HP, you can drop to 1 HP instead. When you do, all hostile creatures within 10 feet of you must succeed on a Constitution saving throw or be blinded for 1 round. You can do this once per long rest.
